REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 15-19 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 15 and 17 of the current application teaches similar subject matter as the prior art of Hochstein (US 5,661,645), Fujimoto et al. (US 6,953,263), and Weindorf (US 7,262,752). However the prior art fails to teach "comparing a current value detected by the current-detecting unit with a predetermined current threshold and to determine permission or prohibition of scanning a document prohibited on the basis of a comparison result, wherein in a case in which if no current is detected by the current-detecting unit, or in which if the detected current value does not exceed predetermined current threshold, or in which the detected current value does not exceed the predetermined current threshold and a predetermined number of LED blocks including a faulty LED are aligned, the determining unit determines the prohibition of scanning a document and wherein in a case in which if the detected current value does not exceed the predetermined current threshold and the predetermined number of LED blocks including a faulty LED are not aligned, the determining unit determines the permission of scanning a document" and "a control unit configured to prohibit scanning a document in a case the detecting unit detects any faulty LED elements in adjacent LED blocks, and to permit scanning a document in a case the detecting unit does not detect any faulty LED elements in adjacent LED blocks".

3. Claims 16, 18, and 19 are allowed for being dependent on an allowable base claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
